

Terry Sinclair Cements His Place At The Top.

After playing second fiddle to son Baden over the past few weeks at Pambula-Merimbula golf, Terry Sinclair showed there is still a bit of life in the old bulldog yet.

In a good field of 169 players in Saturdays Stableford event Terry shot an impressive 43 points to take the major money for the score of the day, collecting the B grade award along the way.

Mike Crandell led the A grade group, unluckily one point behind Terry.

Great to see two relative newcomers to the game in Damien Friedli and Luke Luchetti both impressing with 41 points apiece to take out their respective grades.

Rudi Kraxner hit a cracker on the 6th hole to win the Sails real estate golden shot and take home $258 for one fine shot.

Often Ian Murray and Nick Crundall take a nearest the pin, which was the case on Saturday, however very pleasing to see Geoff Uren hit a beauty on the 22nd for the best of the day on that particular hole.

The undoubted highlight of Wednesdays play was when Ian Franks had his first ever hole in one, one happy chappy was Franksie, great work old boy. A bonus of $152 for the golden shot not to be sneezed at either.

With the stormy weather keeping a few of the not so keen lads at home only three grades were contested with Mark Prosser and Rob Pritchard keeping the home fires burning, taking out their grades, however the score of the day was recorded by Keiran Barratt a visitor from Bega. A warm welcome and well done Keiran.

The ladies play is now back in full swing, with the first of the Monthly Medals played for on Tuesday. Liz McErlain is the first Medal winner of 2019 with a great 71 nett to hold off Jo Hunt by one. Kerryl Stirling was the best of the B grade group.

Thursday was a Stableford when Kerri Freeman recorded 36 points for the score of the day, edging Jan Sheppard by a single point, however Jan was able to secure the A grade "booty" for her 35 points.

It is a rare occurrence in ladies golf to see an eagle scored, but Wendy Maxworthy holed out from about 100 metres on the first to record such a feat on Saturday. Great shot Wendy, certainly a thrill for your playing partners to witness.

Most weeks the fast improving Leonie Bell gets a mention, this week 37 points took the Saturday award.

The club hosted pennant on last Sunday, the course received many accolades from our visitors. Pat and his team made us very proud the way the course was prepared. Thanks fellas.
